QUICK FACTS

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

LEE REED

DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

FRANCIS X. RIENZO CHAIR

Lee Reed came to Georgetown University in April of 2010 as the 17th director of intercollegiate athletics (Francis X. Rienzo chair), bringing with him an outstanding record of service in higher education. His commitment to people is an integral part of his core philosophy and is reflected in his oft-mentioned adage, "Georgetown athletics is STUDENT-ATHLETE centered, COACH driven, and ADMINISTRATOR assisted." This principle guides all strategic decision-making within the department of athletics.

While overseeing one of the most broad-based intercollegiate athletics programs in the nation with 29 varsity programs and more than 700 student-athletes, Reed continues to earn respect within his profession and among his peers. He is in line to serve as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) during the 2018-19 academic year and is currently the 2nd vice president of the Association. Reed also serves as chair of the John McLendon Foundation Board and is chair of the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Issues Working Group. He also serves as a mentor in the NCAA Pathways program, is on the advisory board for the LGBTQ Center at Georgetown, and is a frequent guest speaker at the NCAA, NACDA and other national programs.

Under his leadership, the Hoyas have remained prominent on the national landscape while maintaining their commitment to the values that define the oldest Catholic and Jesuit university in the country. In the classroom, Hoya student-athletes continue to excel, posting cumulative GPAs consistently over 3.2, the highest mark since that figure has been tracked. In addition, 13 teams were recognized by the NCAA for high Academic Progress Rate scores, 94 percent of student-athletes graduated and nearly 300 student-athletes were selected to the BIG EAST Academic Honor Roll, the most in the BIG EAST Conference.

Reed was instrumental in the smooth transition to the new BIG EAST conference in 2013, which welcomed three new institutions. In 2015, he negotiated a lucrative 10-year multimedia rights deal with FOX Sports on behalf of Georgetown Athletics, joining an exclusive list of institutions to partner with FOX Sports in this national trend. Additionally, this fall, the Thompson Intercollegiate Athletic Center will be open, the first varsity athletics facility on the Hilltop since 1951.

The Thompson Center is a 144,000-square-foot state-of-the-art training facility that will immeasurably elevate the infrastructure available to Georgetown's student-athletes.

Reed led the Department of Athletics' ambitious $125 million fundraising campaign as a part of the university-wide For Generations to Come campaign, completed in 2016, as well as unprecedented growth of the athletics endowment. Under his leadership, Georgetown University received the two largest gifts in athletics history, including a historic $50M commitment to underwrite the Cooper Athletics Leadership Program and to complete Cooper Field. Additionally, through philanthropic gifts, Reed has upgraded numerous facilities benefiting soccer (Shaw Field), baseball, rowing and strength & conditioning.

Throughout Reed's tenure, Georgetown athletics has continued to be a national and conference powerhouse, claiming individual and team titles in men's and women's cross country and track & field, sailing, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's rowing, and men's basketball. In all, Georgetown's student-athletes have captured 18 conference tournament and regular season championships.

Three head coaches have received national coaches of the year honors under Reed (sailing, women's cross country, men's soccer) and six team national championships have been earned, including a NCAA women's cross country title in 2011, a men's lightweight rowing championship in 2016, and four ICSA national sailing titles (2010, 2012, 2014, 2016). In addition, numerous conference and national rookie and player of the year honors and coach and coaching staff of the year accolades have been awarded.

The following athletic department "firsts" have occurred under Reed's watch:

- Field hockey student-athlete named First Team All-BIG EAST
- Baseball student-athlete named BIG EAST Player of the Year
- Swimming student-athlete qualified for the US Team Olympic Trials
- Sailing student-athlete captured the Singlehanded National Championship
- Men's soccer team advanced to the College Cup and National Championship game
- Softball team advanced to the BIG EAST tournament

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

Prior to coming to the Hilltop, Reed served as the director of athletics at Cleveland State University for eight years. A former basketball standout at Cleveland State, he joined the Vikings Athletics Department in the summer of 2002. During his time at CSU, the Viking athletics program moved into the upper ranks of the Horizon League and was recognized as one of the top programs in the state of Ohio. While there, he served as president of the NCAA I-AAA Athletic Director's Association, served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Group, a working group composed of presidents, chancellors, head coaches, commissioners, athletic directors and faculty athletic representatives, which was established to develop strategies to enhance the academic performance and graduation rates of NCAA Division I men's basketball. In addition, each summer Reed returns to the classroom to co-teach a graduate level leadership class in the sports industry management program in Georgetown's School of Continuing Studies.

Reed was recognized as one of the 50 Most Powerful African-Americans in Sports by Black Enterprise magazine.

Reed spent seven years at Eastern Michigan University prior to returning to Cleveland State. He received his master in sports administration from the University of New Mexico, where he also served as an assistant men's basketball coach.

Reed and his wife, Katafa, and their children reside in Great Falls, Virginia.

COACHING STAFF

JOHN THOMPSON III

HEAD COACH | 13TH SEASON

264-133 AT GEORGETOWN | 332-175 OVERALL

In 12 seasons as the head coach of the program he has been around since his youth, John Thompson III has made his mark not only on the Georgetown men's basketball program, but in the elite circles of college basketball. Thompson, who has been a collegiate head coach for 16 seasons, has compiled several coaching milestones:

- Since his arrival on the Hilltop, the Hoyas have reached the postseason in 11 of his 12 seasons on the sidelines.
- Including an appearance in 2015, Georgetown has been selected to the NCAA Tournament in eight of the last 12 seasons.
- In six of the team's eight NCAA Tournament appearances, the Blue & Gray have been seeded among the top four teams, earning three No. 2 seeds (2007, 2008, 2013), two No. 3 seeds (2010, 2012) and a No. 4 seed (2015).
- In 2006-07, Thompson led the program to a 30-7 record as the Hoyas won the BIG EAST Tournament Championship, the NCAA East Regional and advanced to the Final Four for the first time since 1985.
- In 2007-08, the Hoyas won back-to-back BIG EAST Regular Season titles (2006-07, 2007-08), posting a two-year record of 28-6 against conference opponents.
- In 2012-13, the Blue & Gray won the BIG EAST Regular Season Championship, winning 11-straight games at one point, and Thompson was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year.
- He has led the Hoyas to three appearances in the BIG EAST Tournament Championship game.
- He has twice been named the Black Coaches Association (BCA) Male Coach of the Year and was named the 2007 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Coach of the Year.

An outstanding talent evaluator who has been nationally recognized for his in-game coaching, tremendous vision and character, outstanding recruiting and his ability to connect with players, John Thompson III was introduced as Georgetown University's 17th head coach on April 20, 2004.

Thompson arrived on the Hilltop in 2004 with a tremendous pedigree. The second head coach at Georgetown named John Thompson, he is the child of one Hall of Fame coach and the student of another, having played for the legendary Pete Carril as an undergraduate at Princeton.

In 12 years at Georgetown, Thompson has guided the Hoyas to a 264-133 overall record (.665 win percentage) and to a 126-84 record in conference play.

Overall in 16 years as a head coach, including four at his alma mater, Princeton, Thompson has compiled a 333-175 (.666) overall record, with a 171-95 record in conference play (BIG EAST and Ivy League combined), won six league championships and guided his teams to 12 postseason appearances.

Since arriving on the Hilltop, the Hoyas have advanced to one Final Four (2006-07), won a BIG EAST Tournament title (2006-07), won three BIG EAST regular season titles including back-to-back league titles (2006-07, 2007-08, 2012-13), reached the NCAA Tournament eight times (2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08, 2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13 and 2014-15), been invited to the National Invitation Tournament three times (2004-05, 2008-09 and 2013-14) and played in the BIG EAST Tournament Championship game three times.

During that time, Georgetown has been ranked among the top 25 teams in the country for 38-straight weeks and is among the winningest programs in the BIG EAST. In addition, in a span of four years (2006-07 – 2009-10), more Georgetown players (5) were selected in the NBA Draft than any other school in the BIG EAST Conference. He has coached two BIG EAST Players of the Year, five All-Americans, nine First Team All-BIG EAST selections and 30 players who have earned All-BIG EAST accolades. Thompson is also a two-time winner of the Black Coaches Association (BCA) Male Coach of the Year Award and was named the 2007 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Coach of the Year.

Georgetown finished the 2014-15 season with a 22-11 record, the eighth time the team has won at least 20 games under his direction and the fifth time in the last six years. A win over Florida in the Battle 4 Atlantis, one over Indiana at Madison Square Garden and a win at home against Villanova were among the highlights as Georgetown earned the No. 2 seed in the BIG EAST Tournament. Junior guard D'Vauntes Smith-Rivera, the preseason BIG EAST Player of the Year, was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection.

The Hoyas finished the 2013-14 season with an 18-15 record and advanced to the second round of the NIT. Senior guard Markel Starks was named All-BIG EAST First Team, the eighth player to earn first team honors under Thompson.

Georgetown won its third BIG EAST Regular Season title under Thompson during the 2012-13 season, when the team posted a 14-4 conference record to finish atop the league standings. Along the way, the Hoyas won 11-straight games against conference opponents, including a regular season sweep of long-time rival Syracuse. The Hoyas were a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and finished the year with a 25-7 overall record. Sophomore forward Otto Porter Jr. was named the BIG EAST Player of the Year and earned First Team All-America honors while also being a finalist for the Wooden Award and the Naismith Trophy.

One of his best coaching seasons came during the 2011-12 season, when he guided a young Hoya team that was picked to finish in 10th place in the BIG EAST to a tie for fourth place. Georgetown finished the season with a 24-9 record and was seeded No. 3 in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round. Highlight wins included a 91-88 overtime thriller against then-No. 8 Memphis in the Maui Invitational and an impressive road win at then-No. 4 Louisville to start BIG EAST play. Senior guard Jason Clark was a First Team All-BIG EAST selection and received the league's Sportsmanship Award, while senior center Henry Sims was a Third Team All-BIG EAST selection and Hollis Thompson earned honorable mention accolades.

Georgetown finished the 2010-11 season with a 21-11 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in seven years. The Blue & Gray started the season with eight-straight wins, with victories at Old Dominion, winning the Charleston Classic and beating then-No. 9 Missouri, 111-102 in overtime, in one of the best college basketball games of the season. The Hoyas, who earned a first round bye in the BIG EAST Tournament with a 10-8 regular season record in league play, played against a schedule rated No. 1 in the country and were among the top 20 teams in the RPI Ratings. Senior guard Austin Freeman was a First Team All-BIG EAST selection and earned honorable mention All-America honors, while fellow senior Chris Wright was named Third Team All-BIG EAST.

In 2009-10, the Hoyas finished the season with a 23-11 overall record, made a thrilling run to the championship game of the BIG EAST Tournament and were selected as a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Georgetown was the only school in the country to defeat 2010's NCAA Finalists (Duke and Butler) and was the only school to play three teams that reached the Final Four (Duke, Butler, West Virginia). The team was challenged by a schedule that ranked No. 1 in the country by strength of schedule for much of the season and responded to that with signature wins, including non-conference wins over Temple during ESPN's "24 Hours of College Basketball," Butler at the Jimmy V Classic, Washington during the John Wooden Classic and Duke, in front of a sold-out crowd wearing gray and an audience that included the President and Vice President of the United States. The Hoyas, who finished the season No. 2 in strength of schedule and No. 13 in the RPI ratings, also had impressive conference wins, including a come-from-behind win at home against Connecticut when Austin Freeman scored 28 of his 33 points in the second half and a stirring rout of Villanova in front of a crowd of nearly 10,000 on the day the District was hit with more than two feet of snow. Sophomore center Greg Monroe, who declared for the NBA Draft at the conclusion of the season, was named First Team All-BIG EAST, earned Third Team Associated Press All-America honors and was named the Pete Newell Big Man of the Year by the NABC.

In 2008-09, Georgetown made its fifth-straight postseason appearance under Thompson, advancing to the NIT where the team lost to eventual runner-up Baylor in the first round. Freshman center Greg Monroe was named the BIG EAST Rookie of the Year, becoming the sixth Georgetown player in history to earn the award.

The Hoyas made their third-straight NCAA Tournament appearance during the 2007-08 season, tabbed as the No. 2 seed before losing in the second round. Thompson's team earned a 28-6 (.823) mark, going 15-3 in BIG EAST play to garner its second-consecutive regular season championship, a feat previously unmatched in Hoya history. His team appeared in the national polls all 20 weeks of the season, never dropping lower than 12th and senior Patrick Ewing Jr. earned the inaugural BIG EAST Sixth Man Award.

During his third season as Georgetown's head coach, in 2006-07, Thompson saw his Hoyas win the BIG EAST Regular Season Championship, the BIG EAST Tournament Championship as well as the NCAA East Regional Championship while compiling a 30-7 record. The Hoyas appeared in the national polls 18 times, defeated seven nationally-ranked opponents and compiled a conference record of 13-3. Thompson saw junior Jeff Green named BIG EAST Player of the Year, MVP of the BIG EAST Tournament and MVP of the NCAA East Regional. Green was the fifth player selected in the 2007 NBA Draft.

COACHING STAFF

In his second season at the helm, Thompson's Hoyas made their presence felt with a thrilling run to the Sweet 16. This was his fifth trip to the postseason in six years as a head coach. A first-round victory over Northern Iowa and a second-round defeat of Ohio State advanced Georgetown to its first Regional Semifinal since 2001. The Hoyas, who fell just three points shy of a victory over the eventual national champion Florida Gators, ended the year with a 23-10 overall record, earning Thompson the Black Coaches Association's Fritz Pollard Male Coach of the Year Award.

In his inaugural season as GU's head coach, Thompson's approach took a giant leap when he became one of only three coaches in BIG EAST history to defeat a nationally-ranked team in the conference opener. The Hoyas ended up winning 19 games and advanced to the NIT Quarterfinals.

Off the court, Thompson has been an active member of Georgetown University and a presence in the Washington, D.C. community. He speaks at a variety of alumni events throughout the year and has annually joined the members of the Georgetown University Wall Street Alliance in New York City each October. Through his work with his self-named foundation, the JTIII Foundation (which was founded in 2007), Thompson and his wife, Monica, have worked to aid community-based charities that serve at-risk children and families.

Thompson also has international experience, serving as an assistant coach on the USA Basketball Men's Under-18 National team that competed in the 2008 FIBA Americas U-18 Championship in Argentina.

In addition, Thompson is also very active with the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and serves on that organization's Board of Directors.

Prior to coaching at Georgetown, Thompson guided Princeton to three Ivy League Championships, two NCAA tournaments and an NIT appearance over his four years as head coach. He amassed a 68-42 record as Princeton's head coach after serving as an assistant coach at Princeton from 1995-2000. As assistant coach, he helped lead the team to a top 10 national ranking and five-consecutive postseason appearances.

Princeton not only made the postseason eight of nine years during Thompson's tenure, but he helped recruit and coach three All-Americans, three Ivy League Players of the Year, two Ivy League Rookies of the Year and 12 First Team All-Ivy League players.

Thompson also played basketball as an undergraduate for the Tigers while majoring in politics. As a forward, he ranks third on Princeton's all-time assist leader list with 358. Playing for legendary coach Pete Carril, Thompson produced with amazing proficiency with 103 assists and just 34 turnovers as a senior. He was co-captain of the 1988 team and shared the B.F. Bunn trophy that year as one of the Tigers' Most Valuable Players.

Thompson, 49, grew up in Washington, D.C., where he graduated from Gonzaga College High School. As a high school senior he was named First Team All-Met by the Washington Post.

Thompson's wife, Monica, is also a Princeton grad (Class of '89). They have three children: Morgan, John Wallace and Matthew.

COACHING STAFF

KEVIN BROADUS

ASSISTANT COACH
SIXTH SEASON

Kevin Broadus is in his ninth season as a member of the men's basketball staff at Georgetown.

This is Broadus' second stint with Georgetown, as he was a member of Coach John Thompson III's original staff in 2004-05. He rejoined the staff in June 2011 as a special assistant to Coach Thompson and was named an assistant coach in June 2012.

Broadus brings more than 20 years of coaching and recruiting experience to Georgetown. Remaining in the District for most of his professional career, he has coached at five universities in the metro area.

Broadus was the head coach at Binghamton (N.Y.) University for two years, helping to lead the Bearcats to an America East Tournament Championship and to an appearance in the 2009 NCAA Tournament. Under Broadus' direction, Binghamton won a school record 23 games that season.

A native of the D.C. region, Broadus played high school basketball at Dunbar in the District and Montgomery Blair in Silver Spring, Md. He left the area for one year to play at Grambling State in Louisiana, but returned home to attend Bowie State, where he lettered for three years and earned his bachelor of science in business administration in 1990.

Following graduation Broadus served as assistant coach at Bowie State until 1993, when he returned to D.C. as an assistant at the University of the District of Columbia, where he stayed until 1997. While coaching at UDC, he earned his master's degree in counseling in 1995.

From 1998-2001, he was on the staff at American University. Broadus was an assistant at George Washington University from 2001-04 before joining the Hoyas in 2004-05.

In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Broadus has worked as a summer camp coach and counselor for both the Philadelphia 76ers and the New York Knicks. He also served four years as a research assistant at the National Institutes of Health.

Broadus and his wife, Belinda, have four children, Nicol, Milan, Paris, and Kevin Jr. They reside in Silver Spring, Md.

ANTHONY SOLOMON

ASSISTANT COACH

FIRST SEASON

Anthony Solomon joined the Georgetown men's basketball coach staff as an assistant in May 2016.

One of the most respected assistant coaches at the collegiate level, Solomon, a Virginia native, came to the Hilltop after spending the previous eight years as an assistant to Mike Brey at the University of Notre Dame, his second stint with the Fighting Irish.

"I am pleased to have someone with Anthony's reputation and experience join my staff," Thompson said. "He is a highly regarded coach and a consummate professional. Anthony is a tremendous teacher and I think our players will benefit from his knowledge."

While at Notre Dame, Solomon worked primarily with the Irish guards and coordinated the program's national recruiting efforts. He helped lead Notre Dame to the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) Championship in 2014-15 and to Elite Eight appearances in the NCAA Tournament the last two years. With Solomon on the bench, Notre Dame teams won 20 or more games and registered 10 or more conference (BIG EAST and ACC) regular-season victories on nine occasions.

In 2007-08, Solomon served as a member of the University of Dayton men's basketball staff. He helped the Flyers to a 23-11 record that season and a spot in the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament. Dayton also was ranked for four weeks during the season and climbed to as high as 14th in the polls.

Solomon departed Notre Dame following the conclusion of the 2002-03 campaign when he was named head coach at St. Bonaventure University and served in that capacity through the conclusion of the 2006-07 season.

Solomon initially served as an assistant at Notre Dame from 2000-03, assisting on teams that posted three-consecutive 20-win campaigns, three-straight 10-win regular seasons in the BIG EAST, the BIG EAST West Division regular season title and earned an at-large spot in the NCAA Championship field.

Prior to Solomon's initial three-year stint at Notre Dame, he was a member of the Clemson staff in 1998 as an assistant athletic director for basketball operations and was promoted to assistant coach in June 2000.

Solomon held assistant positions at Manhattan College (1992-93) and Richmond (1993-94) before enjoying a four-year stint at his alma mater, Virginia, from 1994-98. While with the Cavaliers, he served as coordinator of recruiting and player development. During Solomon's tenure at Virginia, the Cavaliers advanced to the NCAA Championship twice, including a trip to the Elite Eight in 1995, when the team tied for the regular-season ACC crown.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Delaware in 1988-89. He then moved to Bowling Green the following season and spent three seasons (1989-92) there, helping the Falcons reach the NIT on two occasions.

Solomon enrolled at Virginia as a student in the fall of 1983, earned a basketball scholarship and was a four-year letterwinner. Virginia made three NCAA Championship appearances, earned one NIT berth and won 78 games during his four-year tenure. Solomon was a member of the '84 team that advanced to the NCAA Final Four in Seattle, Washington.

Solomon graduated from Virginia in 1987 with a bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communication studies. He is married to the former Tracy Coleburn, a former track standout at the University of Virginia. They have two daughters, Maya (a junior basketball player at Maryville University) and Kamra (a freshman soccer player at Furman), and a son, Anthony Jr.

COACHING STAFF

AKBAR WAHEED

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON

Akbar Waheed joined the Georgetown University men's basketball staff as an assistant coach in May 2016.

Waheed came to the Hilltop after spending the 2015-16 season as an assistant coach at Hofstra University. The Pride finished the 2015-16 season with a 24-10 record and an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

"Akbar will be a tremendous addition to our staff," Thompson said. "His strengths are multi-faceted, he has a history of identifying, evaluating, recruiting and developing young men. Each aspect is essential. He is extremely smart and is a tireless worker."

Waheed, who spent the 2014-15 season as a scout with the Oklahoma City Thunder of the National Basketball Association, has nearly 15 years of NCAA Division I coaching experience, with stops at Niagara and Boston College, in addition to Hofstra.

In his career as an assistant coach, Waheed has been part of five postseason teams, including two squads that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Prior to spending the 2014-15 season with the Thunder, Waheed worked at Boston College from 2010 to 2014.

Waheed spent 11 years as an assistant to Joe Mihalich at Niagara University, where the Purple Eagles averaged nearly 19 wins per season and earned four postseason tournament berths. During his time at Niagara, the Purple Eagles posted a 206-135 record, earned an NCAA Tournament win, a pair of NCAA Tournament berths, two Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Championships, two trips to the NIT and two MAAC regular season titles. He was a part of four 20-win seasons in Buffalo.

A skilled recruiter and strong developer of talent, Waheed helped recruit and develop a multitude of players that have gone on to the professional ranks, most recently Olivier Hanlan (Utah Jazz) and Reggie Jackson (Oklahoma City Thunder).

Waheed graduated from Niagara in 1999 with a degree in communications. He earned his master's degree in school counseling from Niagara in 2007.

Waheed was a standout at Gonzaga College High School, helping the team reach a national rank as high as No. 6 in the country when he was a junior.

Waheed and his wife, Nicole, have three children, daughter Infiniti, and sons, Akbar III and Jahlil.

JONATHAN WALLACE

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE
FIRST SEASON

Former Georgetown men's basketball standout Jonathan Wallace returned to the Hilltop as a special assistant to Head Coach John Thompson III prior to the start of the 2016-17 academic year.

Wallace, an All-BIG EAST guard who hit a game-tying 3-pointer in the 2007 NCAA Regionals to help lift the Hoyas past North Carolina and to the Final Four, finished his eighth season in the professional ranks this past season, playing for a team in Angola.

"I am ecstatic to welcome Jon back home," Thompson said. "Jon Wallace is a winner. He has won at every stage of his career. Not only does he Bleed Blue, but his experiences post-Georgetown will be invaluable for our program."

Wallace ended up starting every game of his career (136), was part of four teams that went to the postseason, including three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, won back-to-back BIG EAST Regular Season titles (2006-07, 2007-08) and a BIG EAST Tournament Championship (2006-07). He ranks third all-time in career starts at Georgetown and the Hoyas won 100 games during his four-year career.

Wallace earned All-BIG EAST honors in 2007-08 as a senior, when he was a co-captain and averaged 10.7 points, 2.6 assists and led the team with 71 3-point field goals. As a junior in 2006-07, when the Hoyas went to the Final Four, he finished third on the team in scoring with 11.4 points and led the team with 73 3-pointers.

For his career, Wallace averaged 9.2 points and 2.8 assists and hit 240 3-point field goals, the latter mark which stood as the school record until the 2015-16 season. He ranks No. 24 all-time in scoring (1,256 points), third in 3-point field goal percentage (43.4%), fifth in free throw percentage (82.1%) and ninth all-time in assists (378).

Following his graduation Wallace, who had been accepted in the Georgetown University School of Law, embarked on a professional career that took him from the NBA Developmental League to Germany, Belgium and Africa. He played for the Houston Rockets team in the D-League in 2008 and won a championship with that squad. Wallace moved to Germany in 2009 and won a pair of league titles there while also being selected as an all-league player during the 2012-13 season.

PATRICK EWING JR.

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL
SECOND SEASON

Former Georgetown University men's basketball star Patrick Ewing Jr. joined the staff as the Director of Basketball Operations in August 2015.

Ewing Jr. is the son of former Hoya All-American and National Basketball Hall of Famer Patrick Ewing.

"Even as a player, Patrick 'saw' the game through the eyes of a coach," Head Coach John Thompson III said. "I'm very glad to have Patrick come back home and to be part of the staff."

Following his graduation from Georgetown in 2008, Ewing was a second round pick of the Sacramento Kings in the NBA Draft and he spent time with the Houston Rockets, the New York Knicks and New Orleans Hornets. He also spent time playing overseas, with stops in Germany, Spain, Greece and Qatar.

Ewing was the recipient of the BIG EAST Conference's inaugural Sixth Man of the Year Award as a senior in 2008. He appeared in all 34 games during the 2007-08 season, averaging 6.2 points and 4.2 rebounds per contest. Ewing started the first 10 games of the season, but moved into the Sixth Man role in January. In 24 games coming off the bench, Ewing, Jr. averaged 5.7 points and 4.4 rebounds while handing out 25 assists and blocking 12 shots.

A major contributor to Georgetown's success in 2006-07 when the team won the BIG EAST Tournament and advanced to the Final Four, Ewing provided a spark whenever the Hoyas needed it. During BIG EAST play, he had 11 games with at least five points, 14 games with at least three rebounds, six games with at least two assists, three games with at least two blocked shots and four games with at least two steals.

Ewing and his wife, Katie, live in Washington, D.C., and have two children, Patrick III and Isaac.

BIG EAST CONFERENCE

The BIG EAST Conference moves forward in 2016-17, the fourth year of its current consortium of 10 outstanding and revered academic institutions. Founded by Dave Gavitt in 1979, the BIG EAST reorganized in 2013 and entered a new era by returning to its basketball-centric heritage. The league's 10 member schools—Butler University, Creighton University, DePaul University, Georgetown University, Marquette University, Providence College, St. John's University, Seton Hall University, Villanova University, and Xavier University—embrace a constant commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named fifth Commissioner of the BIG EAST in conjunction with the conference's 2013 reconfiguration. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has maintained its reputation for top-level achievement in athletics and has continued to be influential on the national intercollegiate landscape, with many conference and school administrators currently serving on key NCAA committees.

Since its inception in 1979, the BIG EAST has been lauded as a leader in innovative concepts in promotion, particularly television, and that reputation continues with the conference's relationship with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST has a fruitful multi-year partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network FS1. FOX's comprehensive coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball includes the broadcast of all regular season games on FOX, FS1, FS2 or FOX Regional Networks, as well as the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, college basketball's longest-running postseason basketball conference tourney held at the same venue. The BIG EAST and FOX also have established an annual five-game marathon in men's basketball with all 10 teams competing on the same day in league competition.

BIG EAST institutions are located in seven of the nation's top 35 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Cincinnati.

FOX Sports platforms carry complete coverage of women's basketball regular season play and the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament. Every Olympic sport championship is also carried on the network or digital platforms.

The BIG EAST has also increased the visibility of its member school programs with the expansion of the BIG EAST Digital Network (BEDN). When the conference launched BEDN in 2014-15, the league became the first collegiate conference to be hosted on the FOX Sports mobile platform, FOX Sports Go, the app that provides live streaming of FOX Sports content. BEDN will carry 225 live events in 2016-17, with an emphasis on women's basketball, soccer and Olympic sport regular season and championship events.

The BIG EAST Conference became a reality in May of 1979 through the vision of Gavitt, the former Providence College men's basketball coach and athletic director. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and within the span of just a few years the conference had become a national powerhouse in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST evolved over the next three decades, the focus of its schools did not waver, reflecting a tradition of broad-based programs led by administrators and coaches who emphasize academic strength and fair play.

In December of 2012, the seven BIG EAST schools that do not compete in FBS football—DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova—announced their intention to separate from the conference's football-playing schools and form an independent association. On March 20, 2013, the seven schools reached an agreement that enabled them to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the old conference's long-term pact with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament, one of the premier events in college athletics. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions sharing the same academic and athletic values—Butler, Creighton and Xavier—and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST moved its headquarters from its original location in Providence, R.I., to midtown Manhattan in New York City to complete the transformation. The BIG EAST's new era officially began on July 1, 2013, its effective date as the NCAA's 32nd Division I conference.

To complement its athletic successes, the conference launched BIG EAST Serves in 2014 to align the academic, health, leadership and service missions of the 10 member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella, such as BIG EAST Serves Day, the BIG EAST Career Consortium and the national partnership with the It's On Us campaign against campus sexual assaults, reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to the campus communities of its member schools and conference's headquarters in New York.

In the fall of 2015, the BIG EAST hosted its inaugural Freshmen Fundamentals, a unique program designed to assist men's basketball student-athletes in the transition from high school to college and the elite level of BIG EAST basketball.

BIG EAST institutions boast high graduation rates for their student-athletes, and the league has always been able to say that many of its best athletes are also its best students. Ryan Arcidiacono, the starting guard for Villanova's national champion men's basketball team and the Most Outstanding Player at the 2016 Final Four, also was one of five finalists for the 2015-16 Senior CLASS Award in his sport for excellence in classroom, community, character and competition. DePaul women's tennis standout Rebeca Mitrea was a conference nominee for NCAA Woman of the Year, an award that honors academic achievements, athletic excellence, community service and leadership. On the court, Mitrea is DePaul's all-time leader in wins with 117. She competed in the doubles of the 2016 NCAA Tennis Championship. Mitrea also was honored with the Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA).

The conference, which crowns champions in 22 sports, had league teams earn a total of 24 NCAA berths and 42 individual NCAA invitations in 2015-16. Seven different national postseason championships saw multiple BIG EAST teams participate, including five teams in men's basketball and three in women's basketball. BIG EAST schools produced 12 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, including six in soccer (four male, two female).

Current BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success over the years. Villanova won the 2016 NCAA Championship, its second in school history. Georgetown and Marquette also have won the national title. DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all made it to the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the Final Four in 1985—Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova—the only time this has occurred in NCAA history. Over the past 13 years, Butler, Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have reached the Final Four, with Butler and Villanova making two trips. Xavier has advanced to the Elite Eight twice and the Sweet 16 four other times.

BIG EAST student-athletes have achieved recent success in other sports, as well. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship four of the last seven years (Villanova won twice; Providence and Georgetown once), with one runner-up finish (Providence). Creighton's men's soccer team has reached the NCAA College Cup in two of the past four seasons, with the Providence men advancing to the semifinals in 2014.

In the 37 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 39 national championships in eight different sports with 144 student-athletes winning individual national titles in the league's history. Since 2013, the BIG EAST has produced eight national champions.

Hoyas on the Air

Entering his 43rd season as the "Voice of the Hoyas," Rich Chvotkin will once again call the games this season. Hoyas games will be heard on WJFK 106.7 FM. In addition to 106.7 FM, CBS Radio also counts 99.1 FM WNEW and CBS Sports Radio 1580 AM as part of its broadcast family. WJFK-FM The Fan is the radio home of the Sports Junkies in the morning and is the radio home for Major League Baseball's Washington Nationals, as well as the Washington Wizards, the Washington Capitals and D.C. United.

Press Credentials

Georgetown home games are played at Verizon Center (Washington, D.C.) and at McDonough Arena on Georgetown's campus. The Georgetown University Sports Information Office will provide passes on a game-by-game basis to all working press. Press credentials are only available by contacting the Sports Information Office. All credential requests should be sent to Mike "Mex" Carey, Assistant Athletics Director for Communications. Requests can be sent via e-mail to Mex.Carey@georgetown.edu. Passes are limited to working press and seating at press row is assigned on a priority basis. Assigned passes can be picked up at Verizon Center's Press Gate entrance.

Photo Credentials

Photo passes are available for working photographers only and will be issued at the discretion of Assistant Athletics Director for Communications Mike "Mex" Carey. Assigned passes can be picked up at the Press Gate entrance. Photographers are limited to working the designated areas of the end lines and any special needs (remotes, lighting, etc.) must be approved prior to installation.

Radio

Space on press row will be provided to the official station of each visiting team and will be limited to three seats. Since there can only be one official station for any given team, seating for additional radio stations must be arranged in advance through the Georgetown Sports Information Office. Georgetown University has two phone lines available at Verizon Center for each visiting team's radio station. To ensure use of these lines or to arrange for additional lines, visiting radio stations should contact the Georgetown Sports Information Office, at least one week prior to game time.

Post Game

Approximately 10 minutes after the game, head coaches will begin addressing the press. Georgetown players will also be available in the interview room after the game. Any requests for specific players should be addressed to the Sports Information Staff at the end of the game.

Freshmen/Newcomer Interviews

No freshmen nor newcomers will give interviews or pose for pictures during the first semester. Requests for interviews with freshmen/newcomers may be made after January 1.

Interviews

All requests for interviews, comments, reactions or quotes from coach and players should be made through the Sports Information Office.
